A Man Stole Some Hay and May go to the Penitentiary.

J. E. McKinney was at the head of the line. He was an old fellow with a blue eniform and brass buttons, and was very sorry, but was released when he stated hat he would he would go back to Hampton at on to the grand jury for taking three bases of hay from D. W. Lea & Co. Sergeant Kerse heard his dog barking and went out to see what it was that worried Fido, and there he found Sandy Sandy explained that he had been coving the hay for safe-keeping, but at didn't ge, and Sandy will tell a jury about it.

Joe St. Clair, a small colored boy, was charged with hitting Wan Ling in the eye with a rock. Two other negroes are in the game, and they will be arrested. The case went over to the 13th. later. The case went over to the 13th. Eddle Curd, colored, was passing through Second Market just at the time some other naughty boys were throwing sofatoes at each other, and Officer Baker took him in charge. He fell back because he couldn't pay $2.50 and costs. Corperal J. W. Moody wanted to be excused for overdrinking this time, and to errengthen his plea agreed to swear off a thousand years and join the temperance secuety.

"That won't work," said the Parly.
"You'll have to go down for ien days;
it'll do you good."
Se down he went.
Joseph Murphy, white, and Andrew-Crump, colored, got in a dispute over a drink, and Crump hit Murphy over the eye, leaving a painful impression. Murphy was assessed $2.50 and Crump $3.

Claud Jones didn't have $5.50, the cost of a Sunday drunk, and he, too, fell back.

Bill Ishman, colored, was alleged to have fired a pistol in the street at George Lewis.

"Dey was a crowd after me, and dey sail had weepins, an' I jest banged away in sef suppression," he said.
"Gimme $20 and costs," said the Party.
Make it $21.70," remarked the Keeper bill declined to pay up and was hustled into the ante-room.

Church Wilson, colored, was arrested by Detective Hall for being implicated in the theft of a lot of eggs and turkeys belonging to Tom Minor. He went on to the grand turk.

band, and that Sarah was always aff her. She had four small children, a the Party fined her $10 and immediately remitted it.

"I'm a great mind to put Sarah in jail, and I will if she bothers you of your husband again," said the individual on the throne, as he waved them away.

HOUSE BURGLARIZED.

Silverware Taken from Mr. R. K. Gilbert's Residence-Burglar Caught. Mr. R. K. Gilbert's residence, No. 1017 Park avenue, was burglarized Sunday flight or early Monday morning, and some hight or early Monday morning, and some silverware carried away.

Entrance was effected through a rear window on the first floor, and an attempt was made to get into the bed chamber on the second floor, where Mrs. Glibert kept her jewelry and a sum of money.

The attempt to get into this room, however, was unsuccessful, but marks of a chisel were left on the door.

The burglar then decamped with the silver.

Yesterday about 8:30 o'clock Officer Wren saw a suspicious tooking man enter a Broad street pawnshop, and he followed him and found that the stranger was attempting to dispose of some of the silver-ware. Another man was with him, and officer Wren arrested both of them and carried them to the Second station.

They gave the names of Fred Smith and Fred McIntyre, the first named being the man who had the stolen articles in his possession.

Mr. Wren had no knowledge that the robbery had been committed at the time he arrested the men, so when the case was called in the Police Court he had simply charged the men with being suspicious characters, and they were given ten days each on that charge, pending the preparation of the charge of burglary. The two men have every appearance of professional burglars.

Smith says he came here from Washington, and it is believed that he was implicated in a number of similar burglaries in that city.

The case of burglary was called in the the Police Court this morning. Yesterday about 8:30 o'clock Office
